UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CAPTAIN PRISCILLA LEDESMA

Capt Priscilla LeDesma is the Education Officer & Recruiting Officer at Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) Detachment 025, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. As the Education Officer, she is responsible for ensuring both instructor and cadet training objectives are properly accomplished. Additionally, Capt LeDesma is the Recruiting Officer at Det 025, where she participates in community outreach and ensures prospective new cadets have proper information for joining the program and discussing potential scholarship opportunities. Lastly, Captain LeDesma is an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies, where she instructs Aerospace Studies 101/103 on the Fundamentals of the Air and Space Forces.

Captain LeDesma commissioned through AFROTC at Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona in 2016. She completed the Logistics Readiness Officer Basic Course in February 2017. As a Logistics Readiness Officer, she has served as the Installation Deployment Officer, where she provided deployment process guidance to all squadron, group and wing commanders and deployed hundreds of Airmen and civilians to every area of responsibility. Additionally, she coordinated multiple joint efforts from multiple states and counties for exercises and humanitarian relief. She became the Fuels Flight Commander, where she oversaw Air Education and Training Command's largest fuel operations. In this position, she deployed to the 386th Expeditionary Wing, Camp Arifjan, Kuwait in support of Special Operations Command Central operations, providing logistical support to many nations. Prior to her current position, the Captain was the Mission Support Group Executive Officer, 97 Mission Support Group, Altus AFB, Oklahoma.
